Hash news

1. The Hash Flame is burning in the East Midlands, at long last!! There were no less than 7 hashes in the Nottingham / Derby / Leicester area during July - even if two of them were on the same day. Rest assured, should a similar situation occur next year, QH3 will move to another day of the week (probably Wednesday), as I agree it's pretty silly for the only two hashes for 60 miles to run on the same day. In the meantime if anybody else wants the Hare Razor's job, they're welcome to it.

2. Meanwhile, in August, there will be a Monday Night Run, and it will be a joint run. Last time we had a joint run (19 months ago, with Cambridge H3), 50 turned up from Cambridge and 6 turned up from Quorn! Be there or be a regular quadrilateral - you won't be disappointed!! Let's make this a joint run to savour!!!

3. After a fairly quiet year, several hashes reach their Kilo during 1997. Among those reaching this numerical watershed are Berkshire (February, but celebrating in June), Cheltenham and Cotswold (May), Brighton (August) and Cambridge (November).

4. Some of you have twigged that we will hit two tons soon, probably in February. What do you feel we should do?

5. It doesn't take much nous to realise, also, that the backlog of write-ups has now reached epidemic proportions. Write ups have not been received, as far as I know, for the following runs:

Run no	Month	Venue
163	Jan	The pough, Normanton on the wolds
164	Feb	The Clarendon, Leicester
167	Mar	The Free Trade, Sileby
169	April	The Cuckoo Bush, Gotham city
171	May	The Victoria, Beeston
172	May	The Cremorne, Nottingham
174	June	The Crusader, Clifton, Nottingham
175	June	The pub in Burton On the Wolds
176	June	The Star, Beeston
177	July	The Fellows, Moreton and Clayton, Nottingham
178	July	The Hammer and Pincers, Wymeswold
179	July	The John Thompson, Ingleby
180	July	The Rancliffe Arms, Bunny

Any run up to the end of May is now free for Anybody to write up!! In the meantime expect to be chased up towards the end of the month. If the RA has nobbled you for a write-up, please put pen to paper or fingers to keyboard. It doesn't matter too much if you take a little scribe's licence with the truth occasionally.

At the time of publication, I have been unable to contact Bleat or Dame Shame, so please remember the Hash Ansafone on 0115 922 6050 for the venue on September 1st. The next Hash will (usually) be left on this number, so this venue will be announced on the above number from August 19th.

There is a huge QH3 contingent crossing the border into sheepshagging country to go to Wirral and Chester 500th. There are I believe still some places left, so why not get those forms in and join the crowd!

Dr Who's Hash on 18th August will be preceeded by a barbecue at the Alexandra Club on Saturday 17th, when we are assured the beer will still be chirruping!

Next Rash Hag: Sunday Sept 1st (Run 184). Deadline: Thursday 29th August.

Address: 4 Clifton Crescent, Attenborough, Nottingham, NG9 6DA. Hareline: 0115 922 6050

Barnes 600th - July 12 - 14th 1996

It was a hot and sunny evening (Why do all novels start like this?) when your scribe stepped off the train at Barnes Station, and immediately set off following the trail to the rugby ground. Too Tuf and Pleasure Gnome had already arrived, having been soaked to the skin in Prague during our recent heatwave. However, what we had all arrived for was the TWAT H3 run on Friday night. This meant following the trail back to whence we came, and picking up the scent again in the opposite direction. The object of our desires was the Red Lion, a fairly posh (But not for long!!) Fuller's pub, and naturally the increasing throng availed themselves of all their wonderful ales, while an increasingly hirsute Periodical tried to establish some order into this chaotic mass.

Having been told there would be 6 beer stops on the way, the pack set off. We were offered the choice of a short-cut to the first pub, but your scribe decided he would much rather sweat it out, and was rewarded by an immediate discharge into superb heathland - the sort I wasn't expecting to see in the middle of London (Beats Wollaton Park hands down!). We were at a check by a huge tombstone so long that the grave could almost have been for us, but Hashers to Hashers, Dust to Dust someone eventually called on. It took us about 45 minutes to get to the first pub (Delicious Brakespears), from which the beer stops got close and closer, and the number of Hashers I was with got smaller and smaller. By the third pub (More delicious Brakespears) there were only 8 of us left in my particular group, and as it was already 9:30, we reached the mutual consent to miss the rest of the beer stops out and head back for the Red Lion. When we got back, it was discovered that only Buzby and 2 other Teign Valley Hashers had visited all 6 pubs! Too Tuf and Pleasure Gnome naturally got a nuptual down-down, and your scribe was obviously considered too hot, so got iced. Most of the hash staggered on on for a curry, although Too Tuf, Pleasure Gnome and a couple of dozen others hit the Chippy.

The next morning, your scribe availed himself of the mixed showers, and then followed yet another trail (With a few false trails to boot!) to a cafe that served Full english Breakfasts (Heavy heavy fuel!) Unfortunately about 20 London Underground workers had the same idea, but at least TC kept everybody amused for at least 2 hours! By now Mango and Wallington had arrived, bringing our turnout up to 5, and we were soon out on the bus, songbooks in hand, in full throttle both literally and vocally. The Mini was dumped at the Devil's Punchbowl, from where the bus descended down, down, down...Oh well, nothing for it but to go mountain climbing. Barnes H3 have a tradition of allocating someone to be "Chicken Checker", who carries flour with him / her, and lays extra flour for the stragglers at the back - usually near back checks (of which there were many). This served to dampen the enthusiasm of FRBs like me, but nothing could dampen the exhilarating views nad the beautiful country we were running in. I think I recognised some of it from the Surrey 1000th, but couldn't be sure. At the first beer stop, one of the hares confirmed Barnes' reputation as being the Yuppie Hash of the UK by answering a call on his mobile phone! (A down-downable offence if ever there was one!) The Mini rejoined the Main at the second beer stop, and as Wallington, Too Tuf and Pleasure Gnome had missed out most of the best parts of the trail by doing the Mini, most of the QH3 contingent were together. Mango, meanwhile had stayed on the bus to the On Inn and was running the trail backwards, together with Windsock and a clutch of others, and they did a Mexican Wave from the top of a hill (Well, it's a bit more original than "Fuck Off!")

Well, berets and striped shirts were donned as the Cabaret cleverly combined various famous French figures, past and present. The Barnes On Inn Band (Who else??) alternated with the disco, which was interspersed with a candle-lit champagne down-down for newly-weds Too Tuf and Pleasure Gnome. What more can I say??

The next day, we were joined by Surrey Hash, for whom Sunday's little trek was a normal Sunday Run. "Hello!", said Rough Passage (Ex-QH3, now runing with Surrey H3) "I didn't expect to see you here!" Having established that she didn't realise Barnes 600th was taking place around her, pleasantries exchanged we were off in the opposite direction to the Common - Richmond Park!! At one point two young ladies were unloading the picnic hamper, and it being Bastille Day, had draped a french flag across the branches of the tree above. Soon 60 pairs of feet stampeded past, all singing <<Ou est le papier?>> (Couldn't resist it really!!) It was an excellent trail, with lots of good cunning checks. However, it soon became apparent by those with local knowledge that the only way out of the park was the way we went in, which may explain why Barritone appeared to follow the in trail going out. It was hot and sunny, Mango sold lots of hats, everybody sunbathed and generally enjoyed themselves the way only Hashers know best. As I was talking to Rough Passage and Gulliballs, I turned round and found almost everybody else had gone! Pity it all has to end sometime, and go back to reality. Altogether a great weekend.

MH3 Hash Newsletter

Here we go again with another season of well planned and novel hash runs, everyone aimed at getting you fit for the forthcoming summer and generating a healthy interest in our local countryside. Or in some cases - "there's nothing on the box on a Monday anyway, so I might as well go for a quick walk and run the chance of getting a free beer or two".

Unfortunately the planning of the Newsletters haven't been quite so good hence my apologies and my relief in getting Dobber off my back!

Before I get underway, however, there are some of our unique MH3 TEE SHIRTS still available, so bribe Dobber and he won't charge you any extra for buying one!

HARES - DOBBER & GNOME

To make sure everyone got extra fitness work, there was a show jumping arena to tackle near the end of this one.

We set off at a tremendous pace with hashers from Quorn joining in the fun, after 10 yards we were back to normal pace! Barritone having cycled from Nottingham still had plenty of energy and led the charge across the first fields until the initial serious check confused all the leaders. A double check threw the QH3 pack and they were checking here there and everywhere but the correct trail. Eventually the trail was found by our motley crew of MH3 "speedtecs", who were then passed by those who wanted to try out the showjumps.

Again the hash was held up for a while, until the route was found around the outside of the arena. From here it was a steady walk/run to the pub, where once arriving the Hares again confused all and sundry by altering the pub venue to the one down the road. What a sight seeing hashers worried in case they couldn't get a drink.

A nice easy start to the season, but beware for future hashes as I'm sure more double checks will be used!!

Down-downs to Josh, Kentucky Warmers, Big Phut all first time with MH3.

Rawhide, is he really the infamous Porno Pete from Allestree???

You are capable of planning your future. You are confident of things you know nothing about. You are confused; but this is your normal state. You are deeply attached to your friends and acquaintances. You are dishonest, but never to the point of hurting a friend. You are fair-minded, just and loving. You are farsighted, a good planner, an ardent lover, and a faithful friend. You are fast approaching your level of incompetence. You are going to have a new love affair. You are in a maze of little twisting passages, all different. You are in a maze of twisty little passages, all alike. You are in a maze of twisty little programs, all alike. You are in a twisting maze of little passages, all different. You are lustworthy. You are magnetic in your bearing. You are scrupulously honest, frank, and straightforward. You are secretive in your dealings but never to the extent of trickery. You are so narrowminded you can see through a keyhole with two eyes. You are standing on my toes. You are taking advantage of the good nature of a friend. Be careful. You are taking yourself too seriously. You are too narrowminded if you can see through a keyhole with both eyes. You are tricky, but never to the point of dishonesty. You are truly a rhinestone in the rough. You are ugly and your mother dresses you funny. You are unscrupulously dishonest, false, and deceitful. You attempt things that you do not even plan because of your extreme stupidity. You auto buy now. You can be replaced by this computer. You can be replaced by a machine that flushes. You can cage a swallow, can't you, but you can't swallow a cage, can you? You can lead a horticulture, but you cannot make her think. You can never trust a woman; she may be true to you. You can't antagonize and influence at the same time. You can't change the laws of physics, Captain; I've got to have thirty minutes. You can't cheat the phone company. You can't even cut the cheese. You have a will that can be influenced by all with whom you come in contact. You have an ability to sense and know higher truth. You have an ambitious nature and may make a name for yourself. You have an important role as a negative example. You have an unusual equipment for success. Be sure to use it properly. You have been selected for a secret mission. You have fallen so far behind, there is no reason to log in. You have had a long-term stimulation relative to business. You have hate mail. You have junk mail. You have literary talent that you should take pains to develop. You have mail. You have many friends and very few living enemies. You have no real enemies. You have only a very small head and must live within it. You have the capacity to learn from mistakes. You will learn a lot today. You have the power to influence all with whom you come in contact. You haven't a single redeeming vice. You humans are all alike. You know how to win a victory, Hannibal, but not how to use it. You know the price of everything and the value of nothing. You like to form new friendships and make new acquaintances. You look marvelous. You look tired. You love peace. You love your home and want it to be beautiful. You may already be a wiener! You may be a lover but you ain't no dancer! You may find yourself behind the wheel of a large automobile. You may now log in to life. Password: You mean I can put stuff past column 72? WOW! You plan things that you do not even attempt because of your extreme caution. You prefer the company of the opposite sex, but are well liked by your own. You recoil from the crude; you tend naturally toward the exquisite. You roll my log, and I will roll yours. You say that now, but try chewing a child the next time you're car sick. You say things with your eyes that others waste time putting into words. You seek to shield those you love and you like the role of the provider. You shall be rewarded for a dastardly deed. You should avoid hedging, at least that's what I think. You should go home. You should hardly ever equivocate. You should use contraceptives at every conceivable occasion.
