Quorn Hash House Harriers – Rash Hag

MAY

New Edit-Hare This Month !

Fresh from the 'vote' at cow-shit laden Scalford last month, I have now taken over the hot seat as your new edit-hare.

Barritone did an excellent job of editing the Rash Hag over the last 3 years, which I'll now try to continue the trend.

You'll find several new pages this month included on a trial basis and I will be regularly producing stats, please tell what you think. Please also note the new contact & e-mail address' for contributions.

Joke of the Week

A woman is in a coma in hospital. Nurses are in her room giving her a sponge-bath. One of them is washing her "bits" & notices that there is a response on the monitor when he touches her.

They go to her husband and explain what happened, telling him "Crazy as this sounds, maybe a bit of oral sex will do the trick and bring her round". The husband is sceptical but its worth a try, so enters his wife's room.

After a few minutes the women's monitor flatlines - no pulse, no heart beat. The nurses run into the room. The husband is standing there pulling up his pants and says

"I think she choked".

Run No.: 241
Date: Sunday 19th April
Venue: The Dew Drop Inn, Ilkeston
Hare: Barritone

Ilkeston has many pubs and the Dew Drop Inn, Ilkeston was only a small clue on how to get to the hash site. Fortunately, on entering Ilkeston I spot our hare peddling madly (in his usual hashing style) down the A6007. As it was 10:55 I thought no problem, just follow the hare as it must be close - he then disappeared down the canal towpath. Extrapolating the velocity and direction of the hare I successfully located the hash in the car park of a clothing factory opposite a very urban and somewhat derelict-looking Dew Drop Inn.

A select group of dedicated hashers assembled in the shadow of a disused ski slope - the hare plus myself, Josh, Scrooge, Rock Hopper, Mr Logic, Wet Wet Wet and a mature puppy hasher from Kuala Lumpur, now living in Nottingham and running her first Quorn Hash. We were treated to a typical Barritone hash full of cunning checks with flour all the way along false trails. We even had a D H Lawrence literary stop in Cossall where the famous writer is said to have come hashing or something like that.

The beer stop was a real one in the kind of pub you don't mind entering in you full muddy hashing gear. There was much speculation as to where Barritone got his £1 from to pay for his beer. It was magically produced after a visit to the Gents - someone was heard to ask whether the coin was still warm. A reluctant ON-ON after the beer stop saw WET WET WET going off to look for trains, or so I was told as I was already heading in the opposite direction on flour. I do get about 1 in 10 checks right. Even with the ski slope in sight Barritone managed a few more devious checks to keep us guessing as to whether we were going to have a visit to IKEA before the ON-IN.

The Dew Drop Inn was indeed worthy of its title "CAMRA East Mids Pub of the year". Its external appearance belied the warmth of its interior with a coal fire in every room and a wonderful selection of beer. Only Mr Logic could have had the following conversation with the barman. Barritone: "What sandwiches do you do?" Barman: "Pork, beef, ham, Stilton..." Mr Logic: "Not salad" Barman: "No that weren't on the list" Mr Logic: "That's OK I don't want salad" Barman: "No problem we can put some salad on a plate for you....". A big plate of sandwiches, each one the size of a Concise Oxford Dictionary (9th edition), duly arrived complete with a large plate of salad!

A Jack Russell dog, appropriately called Jack, entertained us with his ball skills before we had an indoor circle to award three down-downs for something, one of which was being the hare (I didn't get the scribes job till we were all about to go home!). Classic hash and excellent pub for the On On. Nice one Barritone...

Durex™.

Run no: 240, Palm Sunday
Venue: The Kings Arms, Scalford
Hares: Durex
Scribe: Barritone

For Lo, it came to pass that the Scribe rode from the mighty citadel of Bees-ton to the small village of Scal-ford. And there was no soul at the inn. But fear not, for the hare soon appeared and claimed, "Behold, I shew you a sign". And he withdrew from his body a bottle of Ariel Automatic and drew a circle of flour. Thou shalt seek the Holy Water from the Fount of Safe-way, which is hidden in a dark place. But there shall be a trail to guide you, three blobs and thou art on".

And the Scribe led the way for the first three checks, round fields, through woods and across streams. However, he soon went the wrong way and found an inviting path where the shiggy was ankle deep, and had to run to the other end just to make sure. The real trail went round the flooded field, where Warmers washed her boots. "You don't have to try so hard to glean material", cried Bugger, "You can always make it up".

For the Pharisee known only as Josh had already found the Holy Water, and he saw that it was indeed a dark place, for it was a tunnel nearly a mile long. And we drank the Holy Water and we found it tasted good. However, Scrooge had none, for it had all run out. Then the Lord said, "And soon you will see a great light, but first you must walk in darkness". And by torchlight did we traverse the Mighty tunnel of As-fordby. And Bugger touched the tunnel walls with his hands. For he had no torch, and the tunnel was increasingly infested with rabbit hutches. "I can't see Jack shit", he exclaimed. But soon the light appeared, first as a church window in the distance, then as a blazing inferno. Blinking and eyes burning, we found the trail which bent sharply up a steep wooded bank and up a steep grassy hill. But Lightning Rod had found the next check, and a trail which led across the Raging Torrents of Cow-Shit. "I think this is a false trail", he said hopefully. But lo, we checked all the other trails and found that false it was not. There were various ways of traversing this passage, from wading straight through it, to doing as Blow! did and bypassing it completely and SCBing, to gingerly stepping on haphazardly placed lumps of concrete and perilously gripping the top of the cow shed. And the cows were bemused and amused at the strange hands protruding into the byre. Just then one of the cows wretched the entire contents of its stomach onto Mudflaps' leggings. And mudflaps looked up and saw the cow was smiling, which is good, as every Japanese man knows, a contented cow is a succulent cow. And as the cow had obviously been fed sweetcorn and bolognaise sauce, Saki and beer, it must fetch at least £100 per kilo in Tokyo.

And we saw Scal-ford over the hill in the distance. And soon we were over the cattle grid and piling into the pub. And it was disclosed that the GM had committed the heinous crime of stating on his CV that he was "President of a local running club". And the hounds shouted "Crucify, Crucify". And then the Erections were buried, and on her third day it was Rose again. For she was to be Rose no longer, and on being anointed with the holy water she shall forever more be known as "Creamy Bristol". Durex also was awarded a down-down for a great trail, as were the new Mismanagement. And then we all drank more beer.

RUN 237 SUNDAY 1ST MARCH 98
ROSE & CROWN, COTGRAVE
HARE – DOC CRIPPEN

A bright and fresh Sunday morning was ruined when a lot of hung over hashers arrived in the pub carpark around 11ish. It was the morning after Steph's 30th Birthday party, an enjoyable affair that had finished around 4am that morning. It also meant that a number of the assembled 'runners' were a little overdressed for the occasion.

Showman urged the pack into a circle and introduced the visitors, Cycological and Twin Cam from Berkshire and Twonk from Norfolk, then proceeded to nominate me as scribe and asked Doc for the run details.

After waiting for the non-arrival of GPS and entourage, the pack followed Barritone out of the village along the same path as Tufty had used last summer. Due to the distinct lack of enthusiasm displayed by a number of hashers, the pack was very quickly strung out for miles across the Nottinghamshire countryside. Failing even to get out of the village Showman, Twonk and Ben decided that if they turned back now, they would get back to the pub in time for when it opened. Wet 3 and Mudflaps also decided that running was not an option, but a short gentle stroll would be OK.

Out of Cotgrave, cross the road and up the long hill to the woods, round the woods (apparently, as I shortcut that bit) to a track (identified as the site of TT & PG's bonk check last year). When approaching the next check Tufty commented that if the trail went left or straight on, it would be a nice run, but if the trail turned right, that it would be a long run. – It turned right of course.

A mile or so later, I actually saw some other hashers, patiently waiting for us rambles to catch up at the holding check. The pack was about to depart again, when a strange figure appeared over the horizon, could it be GPS – No, but it was his brother, followed by Squealing Piglet, then GPS. 3 miles in 30 minutes uphill and still caught up with the pack! And yet, they still call themselves hashers? Anyway next check, beer stop, 6 litres of beer plus lemonade intact (take note CLH3). A passing runner and a couple of dog walkers declined to join us, can't imagine why!

Only another 3 miles and we were back at the pub, after passing through Clipston Village Only, lots of fields, down a big hill, over the road, past the sewage works and back into the village. The pack dribbled back to the pub 1hr 45 mins after they'd left it after a good run, although some of us weren't in our normal peak condition to enjoy it fully.

Down Downs were administered outside and were given to:-

Doc Crippen – Hare

Bugger – Allegedly fiddling about in his shorts.

(Warmers had re-discovered the Hashit outside the Forest Rock, Woodhouse Eaves where it was last awarded (to Mudflaps), so was given a free choice for a Down Down)

Twin Cam – Visitor

Twonk – Water, for not getting wet all weekend, but as he couldn't/wouldn't drink it, thrown over Wet 3.

GPS – For bringing his entire family to Steph's party

Hashit awarded to Blow, for getting a golden Shower from Steph and enjoying it.

After the Down Downs back into the pub to enjoy Steph's excellent Birthday Cake, (Made by Goblin, of course)

Bugger

Dear Edit-Hare

Last year I entered a competition in your so-called 'magazine' and although I was informed I had come first, what have I received, I'll tell you what I've received - Jack Shit.

Where's my prize. I spent hours researching the answers for your 200th run 200 quiz and now I want my dues

A Winner

EdithHare - I've consulted my predecessor who informs me that your cheque is in the post.

Dear Doc.

I have a problem - it's Freddie. He just won't do as he's told he's lazy in the morning, no interest in getting up, and he dribbles and will not stand to attention. I have tried videos (educational of course) but to no avail. I have even tried hand gestures - no good Freddie is as floppy as ever.

My friends don't seem to have this problem I know Albert's a stiffy in an instant. Wide awake in a morning and standing to attention. I've tried talking to Freddie but it's no good he just sulks.

Could you please advise?

Shit Excrement and Poo.

So off we set for our Sunday morning run
Expecting our usual bit of early morning run.

On this day we had Durex as our hare
And torches had been advised so beware!

We all thought we were running in the light
But maybe we were going on into the night.

Soon mud appeared and stuck to our shoes
And socks, and legs and...were we being given clues.

Torches were soon needed and duly lit
Would have been dark in that tunnel for quite a bit.

Farmers don't like footpaths near their farm
So they set traps for us to harm

On we went in up to our knees
O no more of this smell.... Please

They make the going as difficult as can be
Wade through shit excrement and poo, now see

The stuff it was now stuck
On on we went through this muck

Only hashers would do this, that's whol
Mad people like me and you

If you set a run with shit, excrement and poo
Then give us a nod, please dol

Goblin.

There's this room, and in it are Jim Morrison and Ray Manserek. They both have their trousers pulled right down to their ankles and Gillian Taylforth (Eastenders Fame) is crawling around on all fours with her mouth open.

Next to Jim and Ray are the Beatles, including Yoko Ono, and they've all got their trousers down to their ankles and Gillian Taylforth is crawling round on all fours with her mouth open.

Next to the Beatles are the Rolling Stones, and the whole band have got their trousers round their ankles and Gillian Taylforth is crawling round on all fours with her mouth open.

Suddenly, one of the walls flies apart as a Mini comes crashing through it!

The mini stops, the door opens and out steps Michael Caine who shouts.....

.....wait for it.....

"OI! GILLIAN, YOU WERE ONLY S'POSED TO BLOW THE BLOODY DOORS OFF!!"

There is a beautiful deserted island in the middle of nowhere where the following people are stranded:

- * 2 Italian men and 1 Italian woman
- * 2 French men and 1 French woman
- * 2 German men and 1 German woman
- * 2 Greek men and 1 Greek woman
- * 2 English men and 1 English woman
- * 2 Bulgarian men and 1 Bulgarian woman
- * 2 Swedish men and 1 Swedish woman
- * 2 Irish men and 1 Irish woman

One month later on this beautiful deserted island in the middle of nowhere....

The Italian men killed each other for the Italian woman.....

The 2 French men and the French woman are living happily together in a "menage a trois"....

The 2 German men have a strict weekly schedule of when they alternate with the German woman

The 2 Greek men are sleeping with each other and the Greek woman is cleaning and cooking for them

The 2 English men are waiting for someone to introduce them to the English woman

The Bulgarian men took one look at the endless ocean, one look at the Bulgarian woman and started swimming.

The two Swedish men are contemplating the virtues of suicide while the woman keeps on bitching about her body being her own and the true nature of feminism. But at least it's not snowing and the taxes are low.

The Irish began by dividing their island Northside-Southside and setting up a distillery. They don't remember if sex is in the picture, cause it gets sort of foggy after the first few litres of coconut-whiskey, but at least they know the English aren't getting any...

This little boy goes into his Dad and asks "Dad, what is the difference between theory and reality" His dad replies "Go and ask your sister if she would sleep with Brad Pitt for 1 million pounds and then go and ask your mother if she would sleep with Robert Redford for a million pounds" and see what they say.

So off he toddles to his sisters room and asks her if she would and she says "Too right", so off he goes to ask his mum and she says "We'll don't tell your father but yes I would"

So he goes off and thinks about it for a while and comes up with his solution.

Goes to his dad and says "I've got it, in theory we are living on a goldmine but in reality we are living with a couple of sl*gs!!!!!"

Thanks Michele!!
