Joke of the Week

A top movie producer was discussing his new project, an action docudrama about famous composers with several top stars. Stallone, Schwarzenegger and Van Damme were present. The producer really desired the box office oomph of these three, so they were prepared to allow them to select the famous composers they would portray.

"Well," started Stallone, "I've always admired Mozart. I would love to play him."

"Chopin has always been my favourite," said Van Damme, "I'll play him."

The producer was pleased. "Sounds splendid. But who do you want to be Arnold?"

"I'll be Bach."

NEWSFLASH!!! QUORN HARRIETTES FAIL TO DEFEND HERR BARRITONE

Run # 251. Sunday July 19 1998

Two Amazons visited our Sunday run. They took advantage of our sweet Barritone. Not one QH3 Harriette protected him. The visitors pounced on him when they realized he was the most honoured member of the group. Barritone had just been rewarded with our glorious HASHIT. Two pairs of panties from the Amazons were draped over our Hashit to demonstrate easy access and availability. Then the pair of beauties surrounded Barritone and posed with their trophy. We're sure he submitted to this moral degradation only to prevent causing an ugly scene. Still no help was proffered from the rest of the pack. Our two law enforcement harriettes were being cleverly distracted by the two male decoys who had been brought by the Amazons to distract the QH3 Harriettes. It Worked! Also Mudflaps and Wet3 were too busy griping about the fact that no one marked the checks and they took ages to solve each one. (Teach em to arrive on time)!

Poor Barritone. Two other harriers drank beer through the panties to demonstrate approval of the invasion. Barritone was hugged, kissed, then removed from the scene by the gals. The panties now remain to decorate our Hashit ...unless Barritone decides to keep them for himself.

Warner's

Police arrested Malcolm Davidson, a 27 year old white male, resident of Wimbledon, in a pumpkin patch at 11:38pm Friday.

Davidson will be charged with lewd and lascivious behaviour, public indecency, and public intoxication at the County courthouse on Monday.

The suspect allegedly stated that as he was passing a pumpkin patch, he decided to stop. "You know, a pumpkin is soft and squishy inside, and there was no one around here for miles. At least I thought there wasn't," he stated in a phone interview from the County courthouse jail.

Davidson went on to state that he pulled over to the side of the road, picked out a pumpkin that he felt was appropriate to his purposes, cut a hole in it, and proceeded to satisfy his alleged "need".

"I guess I was just really into it, you know?" he commented with evident embarrassment. In the process, Davidson apparently failed to notice the Wimbledon Municipal police car approaching and was unaware of his audience until officer Brenda Taylor approached him.

"It was an unusual situation, that's for sure." Said officer Taylor.

"I walked up to (Davidson) and he's...just working away at this pumpkin."

Taylor went on to describe what happened when she approached Davidson. "I just went up and said, 'Excuse me sir, but do you realize that you are screwing a pumpkin?'

He got real surprised as you'd expect and then looked me straight in the face and said, 'A pumpkin? Damn...is it midnight already?'"

Be warned, you're going to find yourself talking "funny" for a while after reading this. It was nominated "best email of 1997".

A telephonic exchange between a hotel guest and room service, at a hotel in Asia, which was recorded and published in the Far East Economic Review.....

An Anagram, as we all know, is a word or phrase made by transposing or rearranging the letters of another word or phrase.

The following examples are quite astounding!

Dormitory == Dirty Room
Evangelist == Evil's Agent
The Morse Code == Here Come Dots
Slot Machines == Cash Lost in 'em
Animosity == Is No Amity
Mother-in-law == Woman Hitler
Snooze Alarms == Alas! No More Z's
Alec Guinness == Genuine Class
Semolina == Is No Meal
The Public Art Galleries == Large Picture Halls, I Bet
A Decimal Point == I'm a Dot in Place
The Earthquakes == That Queer Shake
Eleven plus two == Twelve plus one
Contradiction == Accord not in it

This one's amazing: [From Hamlet by Shakespeare]

"To be or not to be: that is the question, whether 'tis nobler in the mind to suffer the slings and arrows of outrageous fortune."

Becomes:

"In one of the Bard's best-thought-of tragedies, our insistent hero, Hamlet, queries on two fronts about how life turns rotten."

Politicians:

George Herbert Walker Bush == Huge Berserk Rebel Warthog
George Bush == He bugs Gore
Ronald Wilson Reagan == A long-insane Warlord (or Insane Anglo warlord)
Ronald Reagan == A darn long era
Leroy Newton Gingrich == Yon Right-winger Clone
Margaret Thatcher == That great charmer
The Conservative Party == Teacher in vast poverty

And the grand finale:

"That's one small step for a man, one giant leap for mankind." Neil A. Armstrong

Becomes

A thin man ran; makes a large stride; left planet, pins flag on moon! On to Mars!

A man is flying in a hot air balloon and realises he is lost. He reduces height and spots a guy down on the ground below him. He lowers the balloon further and shouts: "Excuse me, can you tell me where I am?" The man below says: "Yes. You're in a hot air balloon, hovering 30 feet above this field." "You must work in Information Technology" says the balloonist. "I do" replies the man. "How did you know?" "Well" says the balloonist, "everything you have told me is technically correct, but it's no bloody use to anyone."

The man below says "And you must be a user". "I am" replies the balloonist, "but how did you know?" "Well", says the man, "you don't know where the hell you are, or where the hell you're going, but you expect me to be able to help. You're in the same position you were before we met, but now it's my fault."

BH3 Trip to the Czech Republic

Dates: Saturday 19 September to Sunday 27 September - or thereabouts...

June 1998

Due to popular request there will be a hash trip to the Czech Republic during September. The trip will generally comprise around 3 days in Prague (say Sat, Sun, Mon + Fri night for early fliers) and around 5-6 days in the Giant mountains on the Czech / Polish border (i.e. the rest of the week). The Prague weekend is mainly to satisfy the long-weekenders, and the mountains is too satisfy those with a yearning for the outdoor life. There will be a hash in the Prague area on the Sunday (with Prague H3), and one in the mountains on the Wednesday (and perhaps a bike hash). There can be day excursions arranged to other places. It will be fairly flexible to suit all needs.

Travel

- There are generally, two sensible ways to get there :-

- 1) Fly : BA, CSA and British Midland all fly to Prague from several airports.
Cost: Approx. £200 return per person

- 2) Drive: It seems a long way (c. 850 miles Reading to Prague) but can be driven in around 15 to 18 hours, depending upon how many stops, speed etc.. It can be done for around £200 including the ferry (less for a diesel car), which works out quite cheap per person for a car load.

Money

-The local currency is the Czech Koruna (crown), which at the moment is around Kr50 = £1.00. You cannot buy the currency before you leave, so take sterling, Deutsch Marks or travellers cheques (the least favoured of the three). Personally, I always take sterling, but whatever you want. There are plenty of places to change money, and many places will accept DM's. It is probably better to change money as you need it, in my experience you actually need less than you think... A beer will probably cost you Kr15 to 50 (at the trendy tourist places), and meals are reasonably priced. Outside of Prague you are unlikely to spend more than Kr 300 for a 3 course meal and drinks.
Note: Generally, only the main hotels and restaurants will accept credit cards.

Accommodation - Hotels are reasonable priced, although Prague is a city full of tourists and some prices are as in the West.

- 1) Prague : We plan to stay in the Hostivice on the western edge of Prague, behind the airport (c.10km round by road). It is approx. 10-12 km out of the city centre, which is within easy reach by train, bus, taxi or car. There are two hotels to suit all pockets :

- a) Hotel Fort Roxy () (20 rooms) - A modern hotel with everything to make your stay comfortable (satellite tv, en-suite showers etc..)

Prices : (last December) around Kr1500 per night for a single person in a room, c.Kr2000 for 2 people, Kr2250 for 3, Kr2500 for 4 - all bed & breakfast - they take credit cards and most currencies.

- or b) Hotel Chmclovy Ker (hop plant....)(17 rooms) - A slightly more down market hotel, most rooms have a shower but not a loo (it's in the corridor). It reminds me a bit of the Neuadd Arms.
Prices : Kr450 per person per night for B&B.

- 2) Mountains (Benecko) : We'll be staying at the same hotel as the Christmas trip (ask Motox or anyone else who was there). It is a good family run hotel, with bars which close when the last man leaves, and is approx. 100km NE of Prague near the Polish border. It is around 1.5 hour drive from Prague (c. Kr2000 by taxi) or 3-4 hours by bus (c. Kr100). It is set in very good hashing country, and ideal for mountain biking (available locally to hire), walking etc.

Hotel: Martinova Bouda (10 rooms - 27 beds)

Prices: DM19 for B&B, DM23 for half board, DM27 for full board per person per day (pay in DM).

I would recommend half board (breakfast + evening meal), we will be too busy for full board !

Well, there you have it. It will be a good week of travel, culture and hashing. See the country before it changes too much.

Euro Madness!

Extracts are enclosed from a memo dated March 21 1998.

'The European Union commissioners have announced that agreement has been reached to adopt English as the preferred language for European communications, rather than German, which was the other possibility. As part of negotiations, Her Majesty's Government conceded that English spelling had some room for improvement and has accepted a five year phased plan for what will be known as "EuroEnglish" (Euro for short). In the first year, "s" will be used instead of the soft "c." Certainly, sivil servants will reseive this news with joy. Also, the hard "c" will be replaced with "k." Not only will this klear up konfusion, but typewriters kan have one less letter.

There will be growing publik enthusiasm in the sekond year, when the troublesome "ph" will be replaced by "f." This will make words like "fotograf" 20 per sent shorter.

In the third year, publik akseptanse of the new spelling kan be ekspekted to reach the stage where more komplikated changes are possible. Governments will enkourage the removal of double letters, which have always ben a deterrent to akurate speling. Also, al wil agre that the horrible mes of silent "e's" in the lanuag is disgrasful, and they would go.

By the fourth year peopl wil be reseptive to steps such as replasing "th" by "z" and "w" by "v", During ze fifz year, ze unesesary "o" kan be dropd from vords kontaining "ou", and similar changes vud of kors; be aplid to ozer kombinations of leters. After zis fifz yer, ve vil hav a reli sensibl riten styl. zer vil b no mor trubls or difikultis and evrivun vil find it ezi tu understand ech ozer.

Ze drem vil finali kum tru.

3 buddies die in a car crash, they go to heaven to an orientation. They are all asked, "When you're in your casket and friends and family are mourning upon you, what would you like to hear them say about you?"

The first guy says, "I'd like to hear them say that I was a great doctor of my time, and a great family man."

The second guy says, "I'd like to hear that I was a wonderful husband and school teacher who made a huge difference in our children of tomorrow."

The last guy replies, "I'd like to hear them say.....LOOK, HE'S MOVING!!!!!!"

Not sure about this one sounds a bit gruesome to me.....

Another contender for the Darwin award!

A pre-med student from the University of Arizona was looking to score big with his date on a Friday night. Determined to put the girl in the mood, he drove her up to a spot on Mount Lemmon which overlooked the city of Tucson. They walked to an open knoll where they could see the city lights. Overcome by the romantic locale, she succumbed to his pleas and they stripped down, made a bed of their clothes, and passionately began making love.

The heavy storm clouds rolling overhead and the low rumble of thunder inside them excited the lovers even more. At the first few flashes of lightning, they never looked up to see the charred remains of once great trees. Their idyllic clearing was a hotbed of electrical activity during the warm desert nights.

With a blinding light, a bolt of lightning struck the high point on the knoll, which happened to be the pre-med student's ass, and sought the path of least resistance --- straight down! Incredibly, he survived, but was in excruciating pain. The heat of the lightning had fused together flesh and latex so that the lovers were now stuck together like a pair of dogs. The girl, unfortunately, did NOT survive the lightning strike! When the student looked down into the vacant eyes of his girlfriend and realized she was dead, his immediate repulsion caused him to jerk away from her, which of course, he couldn't! A wave of pain and nausea made him vomit into the girl's face and open mouth! Heaving only caused more pain and repeated vomiting until he finally passed out. Attracted by the smell of "food," a bear found its way to the Siamese lovers and began to lick semi-digested pizza and buffalo wings from the dead girl's face. The student came to, but when he saw the bear, there was little he could do but lay there silently in fear. To his horror, the bear became dissatisfied with just a lick and started to eat the girl, loudly crunching her facial bones only inches from his ear. The bear also tasted the student, scraping the back of his skull with its teeth, before moving on.

Around mid-morning a group of junior girl scouts, up for a fun weekend camp-out, arrived at the campsite where the pre-med student's car was parked. It was only a matter of minutes before three screaming girls discovered the student, who had regained consciousness several times in the night and had managed to drag himself and the partially-eaten girl about 20-feet. Doctors managed to "successfully" separate the student from the corpse, but Mr. Happy looked like a small piece of cauliflower in its flaccid state. The first hint of arousal resulted in so much pain, that the student was unable---and unwilling---to achieve an erection.

Future surgeries may produce a reasonably functioning penis, but the student's family jewels, referred to by the doctors as the "scrotum mass," are irreparable.

Although most Darwin Awards are supposed to be won posthumously, we think this guy deserves consideration since he successfully removed himself from the gene pool.

An elderly man was walking through the French countryside, admiring the beautiful spring day, when over a hedgerow he spotted a young couple making love in a field. Getting over his initial shock he said to himself, "Ah, young love... ze spring time, ze air, ze flowers... C'est magnifique!" and continued to watch, remembering good times. Suddenly he drew in a gasp and said, "Mais... Sacre bleu! Ze woman - she is dead!" and he hurried along as fast as he could to the town to tell Jean, the police chief. He came, out of breath, to the police station and shouted, "Jean... Jean zere is zis man, zis woman ... naked in farmer Gaston's field making love." The police chief smiled and said; "Come, come, Henri you are not so old; remember ze young love, ze spring time, ze air, ze flowers? Ah, L'amour! Zis is okay." "Mais non! You do not understand; ze woman, she is dead!" Hearing this, Jean leapt up from his seat, rushed out of the station, jumped on his bike, pedaled down to the field, confirmed Henri's story, and pedaled all the way back non-stop to call the doctor. "Pierre, Pierre, ... this is Jean, I was in Gaston's field: zere is a young couple naked having sex." To which Pierre replied, "Jean, I am a man of science. You must remember, it is spring, ze air, ze flowers. Ah, L'amour! Zis is very natural." Jean, still out of breath, grasped in reply, "NON, you do not understand; ze woman, she is dead!" Hearing this, Pierre exclaimed, "Mon dieu!" grabbed his black medicine bag; stuffed in his thermometer, stethoscope, and other tools; jumped in the car; and drove like a madman down to Gaston's field. After carefully examining the participants he drove calmiy back to Henri and Jean, who were waiting at the station. He got there, went inside, smiled patiently, and said, "Ah, mes amis, do not worry. Ze woman, she is not dead; she is British."
