RUN NO.2
"CHECKING AT BARROW"

HARE: (Mango & Sally Suffolk) TRAIL: (Chalk-Sawdust) RUNNERS (12)

APRIL 12th 1987

Well I thought that the sun only shone on the righteous, seems that Hash days are so far sunny occasions.

A steady show of cars on the car park at the Hunting Lodge eventually gathered 12 runners for the second QH3 run. A welcome return to Mark and Stu, Sharron and Lisa also a big warm welcome to virgins Barbara, Wendy, Peter and Louise. The remains of QH3 presidious T-Shirts sold and proudly displayed prompted Hash Flash to get clicking.

The distinctive yellow T-Shirts moved off at 11.07 with a good loud ON-ON cry for an undulating 500 yards untill veering off towards a bridle path which led to the rather cautious crossing of the railway line. Through a gate into a MUDDY FIELD with a long incline ON UP ahead. Stupid Bs all ran on until the sawdust ran out. All perched on the top of the hill scratching their heads and other parts! Trail now resumed becoming a very noisy mixture of that "HORN" and cries of ON-ON, ON-UP, and ON-DOWN.

Approaching a residential area for some road running the pack began to spread out with the virgins Louise and Wendy puffing well at the back of the pack but who cares a gentle jog and walk is totally acceptable in Hash.

On Sec was trying hard to hold back but having recced the course with Hash Cash and GM, she could'nt resist being relied on to sort out the checks for the pack. An assortment of further forms of undergrowth in the shape of brambles slowed the F.R.B.s but their enthusiasm now at a peak, they dashed off to finish at the Hunting Lodge red-faced and sprawled out on the deck to regain breath.

A word of religious advice to Hash Flash, please don't grab Catholic priests from their churches and ask to take photo's in return for a kiss!! I know we disrupted yet another Sunday morning service but honestly BRIBERY whatever next.

MISMANAGEMENT: Michele "Mango" Flowers (Grand Mistress): Sue Hibbert (On Sec)
Rod Barkby (Hash Cash): Amber Flowers (Hash Flash)

Thank-you Mark for suppling QH3 with their very own bedpan.
