RUN NO. 4
"IN THE SHIGGY"

WHITE HORSE, SEAGRAVE
HARE: (Mango) TRAIL: (Chalk/Sawdust) RUNNERS: (13)
MAY 10th 1987

The usually quiet village of Seagrave was soon brought to life by the familiar echo of on-on as the pack hit the trail. The first false trail at the bottom of a hill had the runners returning up the hill to eventually find the trail covering pleasant English fields with a check causing confusion. Passing by the duck pond along a farm track, Sheelagh now an expert in falling over managed another tumble with no assistance from Brandy her faithful hash hound.

Two new virgins today where Karen and her husband Gary, they seemed to cope well with the art of not understanding what the hell to do on your first run.

A refreshment stop at the village shop with "PUDDLES" organising the distribution of our usual oranges, he was unable to participate due to a Judo injury, a broken bone in his foot CLUMSY BASTARD!

The second stage of the run proved both scenic and eventful as hashers tried to negotiate a shiggy ditch with a number of casualties including HARD ON and GAZUNDA almost falling in, a shoe disappearing in the mud and SHIT FACE losing the end of her horn in the squelchy muck. OH! I nearly forgot I made a complete spectacle of myself for taking a running jump and falling arse over tit on the muddy bank. The completion of the course was shortened by HARD ON not following the sawdust and admiring the view over the hedge only to find the chalk arrows leading up Barricote Lane, over the hedge they all went only to find a check back at the top of the lane, that will teach you S.C.B.

On home to the pub, where the landlord was amazed at our bedpan ritual.

QH3 TACKLES CAMBRIDGE 450th RUN

7 intrepid adventurers went to the Cambridge 450th run, I hereby give warning to all QH3 hashers do not complain about MANGO'S trails anymore, she may get in touch with that sadistic arsehole who decided that the 450th run would be a endurance course of 7½ miles which consisted of the shiggest fields, the widest ditches, and a farmer that refused to let us follow the trail across his land. Oh well it would be hash if everything went according to plan. The less said about the state of the intrepid 7 after the consumption of all that beer and wine the better.

THANKS CAMBRIDGE FOR A GREAT DAY
