RUN NO. 6

"BEACON HILL BALLS-UP"

HARE: (Crafty Croft & Mango) TRAIL: (Flour) RUNNERS: (25)

JUNE 28th 1987

---

With the trail laid early morning ready for the pack, the realisation that the hares had not read the countryside bye law distinctively clear when a conversation with a passing ranger proved slightly discouraging.

" No organised runs allowed here without permission from County Hall".
Oh well seeing as hash is always totally disorganised we ran anyway, but maybe we were a little discreet using the hash horns.

Never to be defeated the course was tackled immediately by LOG JAM of SH3 who having driven for 1hr 40mins to attend this run set about the task of checking and mainly disappearing over slate walls but never out of sight in that disgusting hash gear of bright orange T-shirt and even brighter red shortsPUKE! A most scenic area of Leicestershire all around the pack with views stretching for miles in all directions, splendid woods, thick bracken in fact a variety of delicious English flora everywhere. Downhill all the way to the refreshment stop with our virgins hotly in pursuit of the F.R.B.s Habitat and his better half Pat distributed oranges, beer and ginger beer-most appreciated.

The second stage was a definite ON-UP and UP and UP!!! The trail was eventually found by ZUPADA who was suffering from an urgently needed visit to the optician. Suddenly the legs faltered as the course continued nearly to cumulas level (BLOODY STEEP AND BALL BREAKING IS WHAT I WOULD CALL IT) An appearance of the famous Red Arrows roaring through the sky above us was indeed a wonderful sight and proved that our altitude was only minor in contrast.

The last stage of the trail was slow for many including SHITFACE, NICKER, PERSIL, LUMBAGO, and CLUMSY so to add some excitement, the bridle path a shiggy haven became a nightmare as a mud fight started with lumps of horse shit being thrown every-where. SHIT FACE delicately carried a huge lump back to the On-In which was presented down LUMBAGO'S shorts during a Down-Down.
