RUN 36 OLD DALBY "CROWN INN"

18 February 1990

Hares: Zupada & Flasher

11 O'clock 11.10, 11.20, 11.30! Where are they? Eventually over the hill a dark blue Montego appeared carrying Sly Fox. Pauline and one ferocious looking dog! What time do you call this? questioned the gathered throng. "Half past eleven" came the reply! As you regular hashers know only too well, hash starts 11'o clock, anyway better late than never (others that didn't turn up take note). Off with the run across the muddied fields of Old Dalby famous for its B.R. test track and now the 36th QH3 run!

Firstly it has to be said, there was plenty of shiggy. secondly, there were plenty of hills (thank you!) and thirdly there was more than the usual dose of QH3 silliness! Much mud wrestling and pelting with missiles ensued. Others fought to keep their shoes on through the squelchy bog where horses did their business and hashers dared to tread!

First casualty in the "shit my shoe's gone" category was Chickey from Norfolk H3, However up and down dale we went until the welcome rendezvous at the stocks on Grinston village green loomed ahead (it was that blue Montego again!). Beer stop time. The pack took on water during a five minutes rest before heading off for part 2 of this momentous run and the fun and games that followed! At this point the unfamiliar figure of our latest virgin Rodney (Cheshire H3) Frazer appeared in his usual position, that is running towards the pack from the opposite direction! Maybe they do it that way in Cheshire!

But back to the plot. A brief stop on the main Melton road was followed by a gentle descent through wooded parts into Old Dalby and more precisely the 'On In'. On the way yours truly received an egg smashed onto the head courtesy of Mr Hard On, suffice to say , yolk makes an indestructable hair gel if not a bit wiffy (Edithares note: I'll get you for that you b*s*a*d!) A total sense of humour failure followed which lasted until two days later when a home made rice pudding exploded into tiny fragments whilst being microwaved for tea! After that anything seemed funny (except "Tarrant on TV"). But I digress.

A good run, conditions perfect, pack dubious.

Apres Hash

Down Downs awarded and recieved.

Rodney Frazer - A virgin! Welcome.

Sly Fox - For being so late.

Wimpey & Maddy - For being welcome visitors from Norfolk H3
