Run 45

'The Bunny Hop' Rancliffe Arms, Bunny
Sunday 18th November 1990

What could be a more appropriate place name for the Hash than Bunny? What with the Hares, False Tails and the insurmountable Bunny Hill - all perfect for the (in)famous QH3 to proudly show themselves to an unsuspecting public on a crisp autumn Sunday morning!

After the dwindling pack numbers of previous months it was a very welcome sight indeed to see our old friends Sir Spill, Mango and Whisper and two Virgins, Carol and Pauline, assembled eagerly awaiting the 'off'. A cool and bracing northerly wind kept the pack moving - if only to keep warm! A cry of 'On On' took us into a head-wind which whipped fiercely across the open fields preventing all hopes of a fast start - much to the relief of Virgins and old 'uns alike! The pack went one way, Whisper went another!

Thankfully, wild open prairie soon gave way to dense woodland which reduced an enthusiastic pack from a gentle sprint to a carefully calculated climb over some seriously perilous undergrowth. (Whisper re-joined). Vines which wrapped themselves cleverly around ankles in a desperate attempt to trip the hapless Hasher and drag him mercilessly to the ground. Eleven entered the woods and 2 miles later eleven left it. How the FRB's arrived home a good 10 minutes before the main pack I'll never know!

A cunning plan to follow an existing marked (in yellow paint) route was exceptional thinking - and worthy of the 'Down Down' - subsequently administered (and enjoyed!) Once away from the jungle, firm tarmac felt most inviting under the soggy running shoes and so a sprint was inevitable! For a short while QH3 looked every inch a serious road running group until a determined Cavalier driver scattered the orderly pack off the road in all directions, into ditches, up banks - anywhere! to the sound of shrieks and screams (and that was just the male contingency!).

Run 45

For those of you who know Hard-on it was obvious water would feature prominently in his trail. We were not disappointed as the closing stages were spent wading through a stream and under several bridges in ice-cold water numbing the extremities. It was amusing to hear the Virgins say only minutes previously that there seemed to be a lack of the wet stuff! Carol, it has to be noted, was first in without hesitation - but then she'll soon learn!

All in all, a good varied run (ramble?) with a careful mix of track and water, enjoyed by all who made the effort to turn up. Let's see QH3 attendances back to 20+! Talking of which, Christmas Hash is nearly here again (only seems like 12 months since the last flooded trails of Rothley were enjoyed!) On! On!

Apres Hash

Down Downs:

Hard On and Masturbater - for the trail and third run!
Sir Spill - for his recovery and return to the fold.
Whisper - for going the wrong way.
Carol and Pauline - Virgins and birthday (Carol 28, hee-hee!)
