Run 46

The (Teenage) Mutant Hash Turtle Christmas Trot, Anstey
Sunday 18 December 1990

Plan of Attack

1. Sherry and mince pies at Ellymay's
2. Run
3. Turtle Pizzas and drinks at Ellymay's

Well, what a sight! The Pack assembled outside Ellymay's place in various stages of Turtle dress, much to the amusement (and bewilderment) of passers-by! A quick briefing from the Hares and off they went to the sound of 'Cowbunga!' - 'I can't see where I'm going with this mask on!' and 'Which one are you - Raphael or Donatello?' It really didn't matter, today we were all dressed up and ready to Hash!

In the tradition of Christmas Quorn Hash this was a gentle run incorporating the usual blend of off-road track (nice and shiggy) and pathways/roads. The cold December morning did not prevent some devious trail laying, by yours truly, through quagmire and water, confusing the FRB's and scattering the pack over at least six different potential routes!

As regular as Christmas is the appearance of Chris 'weren't you the chicken two years ago?' Robinson (Hash name required!) who quickly reminded us of what a fine FRB and Hasher he is. He easily took the record of most fake trails explored before anyone else, not to mention charming the horses of Thurcaston Stables en route to a gentle canter across the meadows! His excellent

'Shredder' character costume disguised him beyond recognition from those people driving along wondering what the hell was going on! Most of the pack wondered who he was too!

The trail took the pack up and down dale, across a river, underneath a pylon, over a reservoir (underground) and through an assault course. Those who ran will remember this wall - those of you who didn't can see the pic below (negatives are available!). All-in-all, I think this was a good run to end 1990 with and hope 1991 will generate a good crop of QH3 epics - now's your chance to lay that trail!

Après Hash

Down downs for : Ellymay (Hare and hospitality)

Chris (why?)

Chris' friend A virgin at Christmas! (welcome!)

A special thanks to Angela for the excellent Hash Cake and the spread; to Cathy for helping out and to Carol who drove 50 miles to Hash with us!

Best Hash costume - Chris
2nd best Hash costume - Wallington
Worst Hash costume - Gazunda (no costume!)
and Stuart

Greatly missed - Optimistic and Supercheck, Mango and Crafty

Hope to see a lot more of you lazy Hashers who read this, but do turn up during 1991 - we need your support.

On! On! and a Happy New Year!

Ellymay
