

Run 50 : The Angel, Coleorton

Hare : Mango

Sunday : 17 March 1991

They say life begins at 40. Not at Quorn. Life begins at 50! Whilst other Hash's have long since run into three figures, Quorn have slowly but surely reached a glorious half century!

It was fitting too, that QH3 should return to Coleorton - one of the very earliest runs, back in 1987. On this day it was great to see a good number of the original cast still running. Mango and Zupada (of course!) Gazunda, Pils, Hard On, Optimistic and Supercheck - to name but 7!

And so the run. Weather drizzly. Perfect! An excellent mixture of mostly off-road, hilly and shiggy; totally confusing and above all a most enjoyable trail.

The pack kept busy scouring the marshy bog lands for evidence of flour. As usual, the white fluffy stuff seemed to be very scarce! Even the eager Paxo couldn't find it for love nor money! Whisper, too, had problems trying to solve the cunning route laid by the most devious of Hares! This was indeed a Hash for Hashers, by Hashers and cursed by Hashers!

Eventually, having explored most of Nottinghamshire and Leicestershire the gathered throng regrouped on a hillside somewhere where no-one had recently passed, by the side of a derelict windmill. It was party time with drinks served by a buxom wench (no names please!) and a surly looking Wallington - a pink pinny wouldn't have gone amiss! Sausages and nibbles, together with dips supreme made this a celebration indeed! Oh, of course, it rained just to dampen down any high spirits (the punch might be delayed action!) Thanks to Mango etc - a great treat!

After all that the trail seemed a bit of an anti-climax. Oh well, On-In!
