RUN 5/7 The Soar Bridge, Barrow-on-Soar
MONDAY 5 August 1991
HARE: 'Crafty'

Who said an evening Hash wouldn't be popular, eh? All those who gathered in the car park on a fresh summer's evening will testify QH3 can fill an average 'snug' any time of day!

Hash tradition in the making - a birthday Down Down for Josh before the run! This was a dubious course of action knowing his desire to FRB - a technical colour yarn looked fairly certain! Thankfully, this was avoided. We all sang 'Happy Birthday' in several different keys and then (you'll be pleased to read) we were ready!

A quick word or two from the vociferous R.A. on the rudiments of Hash markings and off we went! Immediately to the front went Duncan, Mr Spill and Baldicock, closely followed by (welcome) visitors Brian and Diane (Gnome!) then a mixed posse of fitness fanatics in leotards and tights, together with what remains of QH3's old guard (that is Zupada, Mango, Crafty et moi!) not to forget Birthday Boy Josh, Shitface, two Nigels and a partridge in a pear tree!

The trail led the pack directly towards the canal, but fortunately not in it! A group of football training groups passed by with totally bewildered expressions. Who are these weirdo's? Then from footpath it was on to virgin tarmac - namely the new A6 Barrow/Quorn bypass (not open to traffic until Summer '92!). Then off it almost as quickly as on it. Those at the back were already lagging behind necessitating several holding of checks!

Meanwhile, the FRB's were searching the four corners of the county and were mere specks in the distance! Maybe it was Roger and his dog which spurred them on? He looked pretty friendly to me! Maybe we were out to impress someone! Maybe we were all eager to get back to the pub - it was open after all!

More deviousness and false trails kept the pack hungry for more. Even the rain didn't dampen our spirits - this was indeed Hashing at its most enjoyable. Somewhere half way to Loughborough we crossed the canal near to the River Soar and the railway which gently indicated the direction of the long 'On-In'. Of course, Baldicock couldn't run a straight line for more than a few metres and was soon off deviating to the right where no trail could possibly go! Oh well, all of a sudden we were all safely back and into the pub!

A buffet followed (excellent!) then it was time for traditional skittles, too! Two teams battled it out over three rounds to win the coveted QH3 trophy. Eventually, after much unorthodox play, the winners were declared. The prize? There was none except the elation of winning! Well done to all those who took part. And for those who didn't - you really missed something!

A special booby prize for Wallington for achieving the lowest score of Down Downs 4 out of a possible 27!

Somewhere during the evening the following were inflicted/given/administered:

Mr Spill	-	Winner of the 'who got stung the most' award.
Brian & Diane (Gnome)	-	Welcome visitors from Monaco H3
Josh	-	40 today (Yes, a second free drink!)
Nigel Smith	-	Hash name 'Bottom Time' (too long to explain).
Duncan	-	FRB
Zupada	-
Baldicock	-
