

RUN 98. Wednesday 2nd. June.
The Maltings, Loughborough.
Steffluent and Doc.
Scribe - Showman.

The Magnificent Nine left the Maltings, dead on time, fifteen minutes late! Enthusiasm was high as the bunch set off. Mudsucker actually finding the trail which is as rare as Mango running a check. We stumble upon the first check where GropeHer sets his precedent for the night by running a falsie. Josh disappeared on trail and Cyranose was sent towards Barrow-upon-Soar by the Doc. Is Josh telling us to phuc off or is he 'on two'? On! On!

Barritone led the pack into a deep and wet excavation, probably the first one in years! He emerged grinning with a large lump in his shorts.

Surprise! Surprise! Water - DEEP water. Mudsucker christened her new trainers and Sinders discovered that her trackie bottoms weigh 10lbs. more when filled with the clear stuff. GropeHer led the FRB into woodland and very painful woodland it was too. While the ones with a couple of brain cells followed the Crip. GropeHer and Showman made it 6 out of 6 with yet another falsie. Josh decided to short cut 2 miles off trail! The remainder regrouped and waited for the GM who had broken his leg in 7 places! The bunch turned for home. Gentleman Jim, who had lost a stone through perspiration, could smell the Farmer's Glory and gained a second wind.... smelly bastard Showman swallowed his fourth Blue Bottle followed by a lady bird for dessert. And so, the jovial joggers, led by the shrieking Barritone squelched back to The Maltings to be greeted by Pils still with foetus! A spuriously stupendous evening was had by all thanks to the Aqua Doc and Dimples who set a very enjoyable adventure.

I would like to leave you with these 3 thoughts:

- 1) If a young girl walks her first Hash then sets a second - and walks that one, does she deserve a Hash Name? You bet your sweet pippy she does! Well done Steffluent!
- 2) Is the GM allergic to water? (Short-cutting broken-legged b.....)
- 3) Is Steffluent's walking partner going to grace us and run a few yards on the 99th.? (Come on Granny, please.)

DOWN DOWNS.

Stephanie Weeks - Virgin Hasher and Hare, christened Steffluent.
Doc Crippen - a descendent of Adolf Hitler.
Sinders - 18 on Saturday and it's downhill all the way from here.
GropeHer - Sad, sad man found 6 bars on a trail but not the pub!
Showman - for following GropeHer and eating a 5-course meal on trail.
Wanker Cap - retained by Doc for not wearing it on the trail. If you wanna get a head, get a hat!
