

RUN 1073. 7th May 2023. Coronation Run. Meadow Covert, Edwalton. Hares: Long Dong Silver and Golden Hole

A Coronation celebration hash but we also dug out our bad jokes for the World Laughter Day. Welcome to new visitor from the Nairobi Hash, Pounder, and Wrong Do from the Spa/Warwick Hash. It was Salty Hardbit who made her come! Hope you had a good time and visit us again.

To make sure everyone was in the correct dress code the newly inaugurated GM handed out flags and crowned the pack. It was a sight very much appreciated by passersby and car drivers honked their horns. The hares apologised for the absence of The Red Arrows but didn't disappoint with a single plane doing a circuit repeatedly over our heads.

It was far from a boring urban trail with the hares making good use of the Grantham canal tow path and every bit of greenery around Edwalton. Shame we muddied our shoes though on such a gloriously sunny and warm day.

The circle led by Durex, rewarded all the hashers and also had two naming. Richard, who has been hashing with Quorn too long without a name, was named King Dick and Colleen, who dared to return for a second time became known as Queen Myrtle; (I can hear you ask why, Myrtle is a pet name for a secret garden).

There were many jokes read out from the jar but the winner was read out by Salty Hardbit who won the beer. What do you call a couple of hares who run backwards from the starting line? Receding Hairline!

A couple of core hashers, Bugger & Goblin were missing today and we were worried that the confectionery treats wouldn't be there. However, Goblin made sure we got our fix sending them with Wallington. Thank you Goblin, scrumptious and we had jewels on the crown too!
