The Christmas Hash of 1995 !

And so it came to pass as Christmas approached, one score and five merry souls journeyed in search of the Star of Grid Ref:(530367), as foretold by a wise man (well Barritone's a bit wise) and Lo! Behold! and other such Christmassy sayings ! they arrived at the eleventh hour ready for the ON!.

And verily ON! they went through street and shopping centre calling ON! ON! and the local populace wondered in awe at the magnificent sight and also wondered who ON! was and whether this was the second coming (ooh! you are awful!), but back to the plot ! John the Virgin stood standing there in the aforementioned shopping centre and by selection of his "KING OF SPADES" did there unto all the world, a charade based on Robin Hood which was Virgin on the incredible. And on the multitude went and there was no holding them as they left the road and entered the wilderness called The Park. Pullfrew , approaching a stream sought to fly over the water using a modern technology thing called, a bit o' rope tied to a tree branch, but it was not to be as he slid nicely into the water getting wet and muddy and smelly. Some of our gallant heroes jumped it including Cumover, Mark, Baldicock,Dicktafoney and your scribe.

And it also came to pass that several good and many Hashers took a sensible alternative route henceforth to be known as a Bloody Short Cut !!! Never mind!the best was yet to come. A local (Australian shepherd ?) known to the Hash as Skippy carried Amanda (yet another Virgin) across the same stream to keep her dry and like a STAR dropped her right in it up to her neck . What a PLANK!

The Hashers from afar were soon to be transported farther still after refreshment by 2.24% gnats piss. So, in a wagon but definitely not on the wagon, their journey continued with Cyranose clinging on to the sidewall, Dame Shame just clinging, Bleat wondering like most of us, whether we'd make it alive and the two dogs getting it together on the floor.

And so to cut a long story short, whilst also trying to give everyone a mention,not because it's Christmas but because I like to embarrass as many Hashers as possible in one go (and this might be a record?)..... there was Dennis, Rockhopper, Cycological, Thomas, Wallington, Lightning Rod, Lyne, Jackie, Roger (the third Virgin in this Christmas story), False Fart, Too Tuf and Pleasure Gnome all doing Christmas Hash things....

What a crap tale this is! Whoever heard of a Christmas story with THREE VIRGINS and one SLIGHTLY WISE MAN.

Thanks to Paxo for a great crappy run with some good bits in the middle and to his lady wife for a much needed buffet.

Down Downs.
