

And the Consequences where.....

He:

Hatter

Set a run with:

Greasy Flange

From:

The George, Leadenham

But on the night before:

They had a house party at their new house at Brant Broughton, Lincolnshire, where Barritone came early (with a bike), Creamy & Wallington came together & Butchers didn't come at all

Where they served

Quorn Chilli & baked spuds

He performed by

Lighting enough candles to get on his wick, then talking all night about Intercourse

She performed by:

Providing enough food & drink to feed 5,000

Then They:

Gave all a foot shaped peg & told us to draw a pig

In the:

Conservatory

With:

Post it Notes, which were then stuck to the window

Why:

To test your character, unfortunately there is not a description for a drawing of a panda car - Too Tuf!

Followed by:

Consequences and poetry (in motion(s) (there was a visitors book in the karsi!))

What did they drink?

6 bottles of champers & oodles of beer, cider & tea

Which led to:

Wallington passing out & lots of laughter although not necessarily in that order

Who went to bed 1st:

We all went together, Bigger & Goblin in the spare room, Creamy in the room behind the bathroom, Wallington in the front room, Beeriarne in the 2nd spare room, TooTuf, Chicki & Lucy in the dining room & Barritone on the landing!

Who got it up 1st?

Unknown, but Barritone spent the next hour pumping one that squeaked a lot

Who got up 1st?

Hatter

To do what:

Heat us his packet of thick Lincolnshire (sausages) and make the first of about 16 pots of tea

And:

Make the strongest coffee on the planet

Whilst:

Bigger wrote dirty messages with the fridge magnets "Barritone & Too Tuf likes anal sex and poking sheep" (Photos are available - Ed)

What happened at 10.30?

Everyone packed all their stuff back into their cars and Barritone mounted his (t)rusty steed and headed off, up the hill!!!! to the pub for the hash

What did they find at the pub

That the carpark entrance was blocked and we would have to slip in by the back passage.

Who else did they get to join in?

They found a ButtPlug, Gerry Hat Trick, Daring Jim & currently un-named Amy (Middle Hat Trick) loitering in the car park

What time did they get pulled off (from the pub)?

The pack left the pub at A. minus 10 minutes (10 minutes before the end of the Archers i.e. at 11.05)

Where did they go after leaving the pub?

To a check outside the pub where the route when straight on followed by 3 subsequent checks where the trail went left resulting in the pack passing the back passage of the pub at 11.20 i.e. after the archers had finished!

Who found the right trail at each check?

Hatter - the hare

What did they do in the next field?

They had a 'discussion' with a friendly local farmer who was concerned that we going to trespass onto his land & kill his pheasants - what a pheasant plucker he was.

Why didn't they set the trail down the railway line?

Cus it wasn't a public right of way although marked on the map as a track

At the top of the hill what was missing

Apart from half the pack and the opportunity to go down, there was a distinct lack of flour as the trail followed the road along the ridge (in Lincolnshire?) past the 1st World War airfield

Was there an opportunity to be pulled off (early)?

Greasy kindly directed the Hat Trick Clan down a road back to the pub avoiding the rest of the trail.

What problems did they encounter when going down ~~on~~ with the hare?

The farmer was there again with his large loaded weapon wanting to know where we had come (from)

Why was Creamy concerned about Bugger's sexuality?

She heard he'd had Ultra Sound (on his back - Ed)

What was the excitement after the holding check?

Someone found a bar in Lay by, followed by a short trail across a field to a village, which had a pub, but unfortunately for Barritone didn't serve beer (or sheep - Ed)

How do you get back to a pub that did serve beer?

Main lined it. i.e. followed the trail back along the (railway) track to Leadenham avoiding another bar at the bridge and then shuffled through the back streets until emerging in front of the pub again.

How were you entertained at the pub?

By a bloody awful country singer

Who was wet at the end of the run?

Hatter & GF got wet for setting a cracking run as well as it being their 1st time, and then GF again for wanking. They tried to name middle hat trick, aka Amy, with suggestions of Tiville Horror, Snail trail, Slug balancer, but in the end gave her a drink for new shoes, (she was named Horlicks a few weeks later - Ed).

Who wrote this dribble & when

Bugger 4th November '03
